That means a total of eight prizes, and Mr. Leech dropped the hint that the prizes would be the type that will appeal to boys and girls. They will be announced later.

Just now the mainest thing is to keep an eagle eye peeled on that pet, to train him, her or it to lead or follow properly, and if there are children in town or nearby country who do not have pets—well there's plenty of time between now and May 25.

The pet show idea is just one of the many stunts to be offered by the Drummers for entertainment of Sikestonians during their annual visit. There is one distressing to make the dress for her in a day. It took four girls to cut it at noon, one to measure, another to solve the fractions, another to measure the material carefully, another to cut the material. They soon went to the dressing room with her in the corner of the class room be-hind the furnace, and fitted the dress using a whole paper of pins. It was soon finished and pressed ready for her to wear. Their teacher, Miss Huddleston, supervised this work. The cost was as follows: 5 yards of print, 75c, bias tape, 8c; thread, 4c; pins, 2½c; total 90c. This was much cheaper than she could have bought a dress from the store. Solving and Controlling the Most Stubborn Truck Operating Problems Everywhere

Wherever trucks are used, in every class of service from light express to the biggest heavy duty jobs, the Firestone Truck Balloon has proved to be the solution of the tough tire problem. Because of the patent, gum-dip construction, the Firestone Truck Balloon is cool running at speeds no other type of tire can stand. This exclusive principle permits the use of true balloon pressure, lets the whole tire grip the road with softer, closerclinging traction. Blows that cause carcass breaks and shorten the life of stiffer tires are absorbed. It means greater strength, slower wear, freedom from delays, far more mileage, smoother running that cuts down truck repairs through greater cushion-

Board of Public Works Gives Consideration To Plan to Declare Dividend; Council Expected to O. K. Measure.

A gift of $5600 absolutely free!

Sounds impossible, but it may be true before long. Sikeston citizens who work for a municipal light plant, and who since its inauguration in 1930, have supported the venture will in all probability reap a dividend next month, provided a proposed measure of the Board of Public Works meet with approval of the Sikeston City Council. Aldermen were to be called in special session Monday night by Mayor N. E. Fuchs, who expressed the opinion that no serious objection would be

Board members and especially E. P. Coleman, who fathered the dividend idea, pointed out that loyal support of local citizens alone made the plant possible, and since then enabled the municipal venture a success financially. It is only right, therefore, that this continued loyalty and support be rewarded in a concrete, visible manner ,it was

The Board personnel estimates that the financial standing of the city plant will not be injured by this declaration of a dividend. Thus made the plant possible in the first place. Now, in the light of disrupted economic conditions, and lowered earning power on the part of consumers of electricity, it is only fair that a part of their plant revenue be returned.

Thus far not one dime has been collected in taxes for the support maintanence of the local plant,

It means, in brief, that users of municipal light plant current, will keep approximately $5600 in their pockets, next month for other purposes. If the measure is finally approved, it means that April bills will come to consumers marked, "Paid in Full".

Pet Show for Kiddies To Be Featured Here

Dogs, cats, goats, white mice r rats, polly patrrots, and ven alligators may soon come in for their share of attention, especially after the announcement that a genuine "pet show" for kiddies, boys and girls in two separate age groups will be held in connection with the Southeast Missouri Drummers' Convention here next May.

W. E. Leach of St. Louis, president during the first three years of the life of the association and a "gramper" himself several times over, bubbled over while discussing the plan with a Standard representative last Friday after-

Every kid has a pet, my children had 'em, and my chil-dren's children have 'em. I just feel that Sikeston kids are no different from other children. Then why not give them a chance to show off their favorites, and comthat was pete for prizes . the sum and substance of the discussion. It was decided then and there to conduct the contest Thursday afternoon, May 25, and every child Sikeston or living in this vicinity is eligible to enter a pet in the competition. Of course there will be a parade, a parade of children and pets, and after the parade has passed, the judges' stand there will be

Children will be divided first of all as to boys and girls, and in each division there will be two classes. A first and sec-ond prize will be given to the boy and girl under 8 years of age, and a first and second prize to the lad and lass between the ages of eight and fourteen.

That means a total of eight prizes, and Mr. Leech dropped the hint that the prizes would be the type that will appeal to boys and girls. They will be announced later.

Just now the mainest thing is to keep an eagle eye peeled on that pet, to train him, her or it to lead or follow properly, and if there are children in town or nearby country who do not have pets-well there's plenty of time between now and May 25.

The pet show idea is just one of the many stunts to be offered by the Drummers for during their annual visit. On Friday, May 26, all school children, white, Protestant, Catholic and colored will take part in a monster parade. Fancy caps, flags, whistles and noise makers will be had in

Solving and Controlling the Most Stubborn Truck Operating Problems Everywhere

Wherever trucks are used, in every class of service from light express to the biggest heavy duty jobs, the Firestone Truck Balloon has proved to be the solution of the tough tire problem. Because of the patent, gum-dip construction, the Firestone Truck Balloon is cool running at speeds no other type of tire can stand. This exclusive principle permits the use of true balloon pressure, lets the whole tire grip the road with softer, closerclinging traction. Blows that cause carcass breaks and shorten the life of stiffer tires are absorbed. It means greater strength, slower wear, freedom from delays, far more mileage, smoother running that cuts down truck repairs through greater cushion-

Whether you are interested in ability to pull in deep mud and sand or high average speeds for interstate hauling-whether you figure tire life in length of service or total miles-no matter what your job is, the Firestone Truck Balloon will bring you remarkable savings.

Hundreds of single truck and fleet operators have made the
